Strong Against the Odds

A celebration of successful disabled women in Kensington and Chelsea!

To mark the 100th anniversary of the Suffragettes' successful campaign to give women the right to vote, Action Disability Kensington and Chelsea will be holding a conference to:

- recognise the achievements of the Suffragettes in improving women's rights,
- celebrate the success of local disabled women, and
- explore areas where campaigning is still needed!

Thursday 18th October 2018

from 11.15 until 3.30

at the

Latymer Community Church

116 Bramley Road, London, W10 6SU
